

Amplitude Modulation International

Why do Amateurs enjoy AM?

AM sounds great and it is easy to listen to. When an AM carrier quiets your receiver and rich full audio fills your radio room, you experience something that goes beyond just making contact.

■ How can AMI help you enjoy AM?

AMI encourages regional AM activity insuring there is AM available somewhere on the amateur bands, no matter where you live.

AMI sponsors operating events and contests.

AMI encourages use of classic radios as well as modern AM capable equipment.

AMI encourages amateurs to get involved with their radios, from simple modifications to extensive homebrew projects.

■ How can AMI promote AM?

AMI has slide and video presentations suitable for use at club meetings and hamfests.

AMI members conduct net operations that are open to all amateurs.

AMI encourages submission of AM articles for publication in amateur radio magazines.

AMI keeps manufacturers informed about AM use trends.

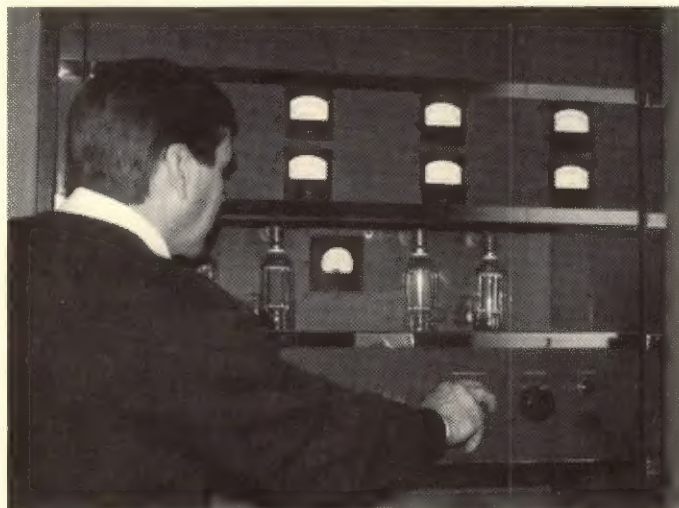

■ How can AMI preserve AM?

AMI monitors developments in amateur radio practice, policy and regulation that could affect AM operation.

AMI keeps it membership informed and recommends action if threats arise.

AMI members stand ready to exert influence on organizations and government to preserve AM operating privileges.

AM*International*

■ AMI Organization

AMI has a regional organization to insure contact with AM operators on a local basis. Regional and headquarters officers compose AMI's Board of Directors. Amateurs with an interest in Amplitude Modulation from all over the world are invited to join AMI.

■ Membership

Receive an attractive membership certificate and additional AMI information by sending your printed name, address, phone number and call sign with $2.00 (US) to:

AM International
Box 1500
Merrimack, New Hampshire 03054-1500

Electric Radio
P.O. Box 57
Hesperus, CO 81326
(303) 247-4935
The AM Press/Exchange
2116 Old Dover Road
Woodlawn, TN 37191

AMI news will be regularly featured in Electric Radio and The AM Press/Exchange.
Send or call for information:

■ AM International News

1.885 1.945 1.995 3.885 7.160 7.290 14.286 21.425 29.0-29.1 MHz

AM operation is usually found grouped around specific frequencies. Look for amateur AM activity near:

■ AM Operating Frequencies

AM International

Dedicated to the Enjoyment, Promotion and Preservation of Amplitude Modulation

